

CORNELL'S RALLY IN SIXTH BEATS TIGERS

Steve Regan Shows His First Good Work of Year When He Relieves Russell.

HIS PITCHING BRILLIANT

ITHACA, May 8.—Cornell took revenge on Princeton in baseball this afternoon by scoring an 8 to 3 victory over the Tigers. In the sixth inning a batting rally coupled with Tiger misplays gave the Ithaca five runs and the lead.

Steve Regan saved the day for Cornell. The Tigers batted Russell for six hits and three runs in a two and third inning. With a man on second, Steve Regan sent the ball in the third inning. Not a Tiger crossed the plate after that and Regan allowed Princeton only one hit in six and two-thirds innings. It was the first brilliant game he has pitched this year.

Two double plays by Cornell, in which Mellen played a big part, and a sensational catch by Briggs were fielding features. The score:

CORNELL	PRINCETON
Regan, 2b, 4-0-0-0	Hanks, 1b, 1-1-1-0
Donovan, 1b, 2-1-0-0	Seely, 2b, 3-1-1-1

TRINITY CONQUERS WILLIAMS

Victory by 6 to 1 Over Nine That Beat Yale Earlier in Week.

HARTFORD, May 8.—Trinity felt elated tonight over a decisive victory, score 6 to 1, over the strong Williams nine that beat Yale earlier in the week. Today, the first man to bat this afternoon, made a hit and later scored Williams' solitary tally. In the third inning Trinity landed on Young for four hits and three runs. The sixth a double and single, combined with a pair of errors, brought in three more runs. The score:

HOMER BY MILBURN GIVES YALE VICTORY

Middlebrook Scores Ahead of Him and Vermont Losses, Score 2 to 0.

WAY VIES WITH GILBERT

NEW HAVEN, May 8.—Milburn's home run, which scored Middlebrook ahead of him in the sixth inning, brought in the only runs of today's game and enabled Yale to defeat the University of Vermont by 2 to 0.

The game was a pitchers' battle between Yale and Vermont. Both pitchers led the opposing team down to four hits, but Gilbert was wilder than the Ell twirler. Way struck out six Vermont batters, and did not permit a runner to reach third base.

Legore featured with his base running, getting the three steals of the game. The score:

YALE	VERMONT
